

Grant Title: CHANGING FACES OF AMERICA'S CHILDREN - YOUNG SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Funding Opportunity Number: N/A

Agency/Department: Foundation for Child Development.

Area of Research: Research that can inform policies regarding the health and education needs of young newcomer children.

Release and Expiration: N/A

Application Deadline: November 4, 2009.

Amount: Three to four fellowships of up to $150,000 for use over one to three years (maximum) will be awarded competitively.

Length of Support: One to three years.

Eligible Applicants: Eligible researchers will have earned their doctoral degrees within the last 15 years, and be full-time, faculty members of a college or university in the United States. Applicants must hold a Ph.D. or its equivalent in one of the behavioral and social sciences or in an allied professional field (e.g., public policy, public health, education, social work, nursing, medicine). Please note individuals with tenure-equivalent positions are not eligible for the fellowship.

Summary: The goals of the FCD Young Scholars Program are to: (a) stimulate both basic and policy-relevant research about the early education, health and well-being of children living in immigrant families from birth to age ten, particularly those who are living in low-income families; (b) support young investigators - from the behavioral and social sciences or in an allied professional field - who are untenured but in tenure-track positions or who have received tenure in the last four years from a college or university in the United States. No applications from full professors will be accepted. Fellowship recipients are expected to produce a book or article(s) suitable for publication, and to articulate how their research may potentially inform public policies regarding young newcomer children.
