Applicants from universities and colleges may not be tenured before the start of the fellowship (July 1, 2010). Applicants from other research institutions must be within 6 years of having been awarded their final degree. Applications must be made by the individual applying for the fellowship. Group applications will not be accepted. The proposed project must be a research project.

Summary: The KSTF Research Fellowship seeks to support early career scholars engaged in critical research in education. Applications are encouraged from scholars in all disciplines that promise to make significant scholarly contributions to areas that are consistent with the mission of KSTF, which is improving high school mathematics and science teaching in the United States. More specifically, KSTF supports those who can contribute to understanding recruitment, preparation, induction, mentoring and/or retention of high quality high school science and mathematics teachers. Stipulations: (a) Fellows must receive approval for their project from a human subjects review board prior to the release of the initial payment of fellowship funds; (b) fellows must forward notice from their institution which states that the institution approves and commits to this project prior to the release of the initial payment of fellowship funds; (c) fellows must provide progress reports to KSTF prior to the release of subsequent payments of fellowship funds.
