Summary: The A.L. Mailman Family Foundation focuses on improving the systems and policies that impact very young children and their families. The Foundation's quest is to make quality early experiences the norm, so that all children are primed for success. The Foundation's goal is to promote the building of sustainable systems that provide access to high quality early learning experiences for all children. The Foundation attempt to effect system-wide change by encouraging responsive public policies. The Foundation funds: the creation and dissemination of curricula, materials or tools that promote quality; advocacy and strategic communication to inform and build public will; applied research designed to inform policy and improve practice; and collaboratives to expand our learning and broaden our sphere of influence. The Foundation is maintaining current obligations but is reviewing program directions and is not inviting unsolicited proposals for new projects.
