Summary: The Coca-Cola Company and its philanthropic arm, The Coca-Cola Foundation, aim to make a greater impact on the communities they serve around the world by being responsive to the citizenship priorities of the communities in which they live and work. The Coca-Cola Company recognizes that they cannot have a healthy and growing business unless the communities they serve are healthy and sustainable. The Coca-Cola Foundation is committed to improving the quality of life in the communities where they do business and have realigned community investment priorities to be reflective of and responsive to the global and local nature of their business. Their renewed strategy focuses on global pillars where they can make a unique and sustainable difference: water stewardship, healthy active lifestyles, community recycling, and education. Healthy and Active Lifestyles support access to exercise, physical activity and nutritional education programs, programs that motivate behavior modification, and programs that encourage lifestyle/behavioral changes. Education supports scholarships, school drop-out prevention, access to education programs, and other education initiatives, per local business unit priorities.
