

Grant Title: GRAMMY FOUNDATION GRANTS

Area of Research: Advance the research and/or broad reaching implementations of original scientific research projects related to the impact of music on the human condition

Application Deadline: October 1, 2008

Amount: Grants for projects ready for Preservation Implementation: $10,000 to $40,000, for Planning, Assessment and/or Consultation grants: $5,000 to $10,000

Length of Support: Up to twenty-four months

Eligible Applicants: The GRAMMY Foundation Grant Program awards grants to organizations and individuals to support efforts that advance research and implementation of original scientific research projects related to the impact of music on the human condition

Agency/Department: The GRAMMY Foundation

Summary: The GRAMMY Foundation Grant Program awards grants to organizations and individuals to support efforts that advance the research and/or broad reaching implementations of original scientific research projects related to the impact of music on the human condition, such as the links between music study and early childhood development, the effects of music therapy and the medical and occupational well being of music professionals.

The GRAMMY Foundation Grant Program awards grants to organizations and individuals to support efforts that advance the research and/or broad reaching implementations of original scientific research projects related to the impact of music on the human condition, such as the links between music study and early childhood development, the effects of music therapy and the medical and occupational well being of music professionals.

Detailed Information: http://www.grammy.com/GRAMMY_Foundation/Grants/